WHO WE ARE

YDRC supports Detroit area out-of-school time program providers in building their capacity to serve young people.

We do this by equipping youth development professionals with tools, skills, awareness, and connections essential in providing thousands of Detroit area youth with the communities, program spaces, and opportunities they need to thrive in school, careers, and life.

WHAT WE DO

YDRC supports 100s of Detroit area youth development providers with their signature holistic approach to quality, networking, and adult learning to expand youth provider skills and capabilities.

Our programs strengthen the individual and collective impact on youth by giving the youth providers the tools they need to increase program quality and produce measurable results.

HOW WE DO IT

Many YDRC programs are FREE and include:

- Professional Development
- Workshops
- Learning Communities
- Networking Events

Each program is designed to help grow and increase the positive outcomes of the Detroit area programs and the youth they serve.

"I appreciate how YDRC humanizes data and looks from a youthful and cultural lens and is really intentional." - Kimberly
